

JANUARY 2019

Hello Everyone,

As many of you are aware Jean Pierre and I retired as of January 17, 2019. The last two weeks have been a hectic scramble to clear out the studio space of all our equipment and supplies. A lot of the larger items went to other food professionals to be used in a different environment. Smaller items got donated, sold, or given away as mementos.

We are sincerely thankful for your loyal support over the 15 years we have been here. We always said we have the best customers on the planet. We have so many great memories of you all. So much good food, fantastic wines, stories, tall tales, travels, friendships, and laughter.

We are now off on a new adventure once again to Central America. We will be out of the country until the warm weather comes around. We booked one way tickets as we are not sure exactly when we will return. I will try to keep you all informed of our next project. Jean Pierre will always wind up in some kitchen somewhere. He is an artist when it comes to food so he wants to stay connected somehow.

Our web site will still be available to send and receive emails so please stay in touch with us.

We wish you continued good food, wines, and especially good health.

Cheers and hugs to all.

- Joan and Jean Pierre Tardy
